

Types of International Travel

Student Group	Student Individual	Business Travel
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ISU Study Abroad Program (group) • Registered Student Organizations • Student groups affiliated with and organized by a department (not for credit) • Service trips that are not for credit (and organized or advised by department or student org) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ISU Study Abroad Program (individual) • Undergraduate attending a conference • Undergrad conducting research for pay and/or towards degree requirements • Internships registered for ISU credit (incl. GRS, vet preceptorship) • Award-related travel (fellowships, etc.) by students • Study abroad programs not offered by ISU and registered for INTED • All other ISU-sponsored travel involving an undergraduate 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Managed by International Travel Registration Policy (unless students involved) www.policy.iastate.edu/policy/international_travel • ISU-sponsored travel by a faculty, staff, post-doc, or other employee of the university • ISU-sponsored travel by officially registered volunteers • ISU-sponsored travel by graduate and professional students that is not for credit and not solely part of their program of study • Travel undertaken by the athletics department for NCAA competition regardless of traveler type (undergraduate athletes register as business travelers)

Student Personal Travel Examples (exempt from process below)

- Internship that student finds on their own and is not registered for ISU credit
- Participating in a non-credit bearing activity that was not organized or advised by ISU staff, including a program, for example, that a faculty/staff may announce as an opportunity
- Students on their own direction attends an international university and does not use financial aid or ISU international insurance or be enrolled in INTED. Decision on accepting credits is a separate academic decision.

Registration & Approval Process

*Risk for all current and future travel is continually reviewed and travel plans adjusted as needed